US Foods Names New Chief Human Resources Officer

2018-02-26

ROSEMONT, Ill.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- US Foods Holding Corp. (NYSE: USFD) announced today that David Works has joined the company as Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer, reporting to Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Pietro Satriano.

"I'm pleased to welcome David, a seasoned chief human resources officer and business executive, to our executive leadership team," said US Foods Chairman and CEO Pietro Satriano. "Employees are the driving force behind our Great Food. Made Easy. strategy, and David's leadership will be invaluable as we work to attract, develop and engage the right talent now and in the future."

Works joins US Foods from Hackensack Meridian Health, where he served as chief human resources officer for the not-for-profit health care organization. Previously, Works led the HR organizations at Windstream and Sears Holdings. He also served as the president of the Enterprise Business Unit at Windstream. Works spent the first seven years of his career as an officer in the U.S. Navy's submarine force. He began his post-Navy career as an engineer at Motorola, followed by time at McKinsey & Company and ghSMART, a firm which specializes in talent assessment and leadership development.

Works holds degrees in Finance and Mechanical Engineering from the University of Pennsylvania, as well as a Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Connecticut and a Master of Business Administration from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.
